Yearly Sponsorship Package (all packages):

This includes a thank you card, certificate and photo mailed out to you after your first payment goes through. You will get email updates about the farm throughout the year, this includes photos, videos and early access to information about our new animals. You will also get free entry to one tour throughout the year. Your name will be proudly displayed in our barn on the sponsor wall (if your sponsorship is a gift for someone, include their name to be put on the wall).

Sponsored Animal Package (all animal packages):

This includes specific updates about your sponsored animal throughout the year and a free ticket to a special sponsor tour that is only available for sponsors like yourself.

V.I.P. Access ($15 or more packages):

This will give you access to tickets for our special events before they go on sale. You will also be able to purchase tickets to any sold out event or tour even after the deadlines.

Meet and Greet ($20 or more packages):

This will include a meet and greet with your sponsored animal after the tour including many photo opportunities, private feeding and information about your animal friend. You will also be emailed content that is not posted on social media including blooper videos and photos and a behind the scenes look at the sanctuary life. You will be mailed out a special gift with your sponsorship package and have a free tickets to two special sponsor tours. Our social media team will also send you a special shout-out with your sponsored animal.

Private Package (special needs or guardian angel package):

This will include a private tour for just you and a friend, including many photo opportunities, private feeding and information about your animal friends. Your name will be posted in the rehabilitation centre and you will receive specialized birthday and Christmas gifts.

Angel Package (guardian angel package only):

This includes a private tour of the sanctuary with the founder of Charlotte's Freedom Farm, including many photo opportunities and private feedings. You will receive a family pack of four tickets for you and your guests. You will be given special recognition in the barn and be sent additional personalized gifts throughout the year.
